AccuFund has added a Grants Management module to the Accufund Accounting Suite for non-profits and government agencies. The module is a central store for all information about grants received or awarded by organizations. Grants Management is tightly integrated with the General Ledger for reporting, stores unlimited fields of data and historical transactions about the grant. The module may be customized to meet specific organizational needs.

]

Read full article [