Human Resources

AccuFund Anywhere Online

Unify All Your HR Data

The browser based Human Resources module drives important employee management functions, such as benefits management, performance tracking, training documentation, and more.

The Human Resources module provides a standard set of employee management tools, along with the flexibility to add on more data tracking items to meet specific organizational requirements.

The Human Resources module is included with AccuFund's Payroll module, and integrates with all components of AccuFund's HRMS system, and can be used in conjunction with them, such as in Employee Self Service.
